

June 8 1943

Hotel Douglass
Broad & Lombard Sts
Phila. Pa.

Gentlemen:

I am writing to follow up our telephone conversation, when I asked you to reserve room for The Eagles this coming Thursday night June the 10th.

I asked for eight rooms for seventeen men, but I find now I will need nine rooms as there will be seventeen men.

Thank you for your cooperation. The team will not arrive at the hotel until after the ballgame.

Very Truly Yours